President's Message

J ai Jinendra.

Wish you all a Happy Diwali & Prosperous New Year.

Along with our many other programs at the Jain Society, Paryushan and Das Lakshan Parva was celebrated with tremendous joy and devotion. Thanks to Dr Falguniben Zaveri for her excellent Pravachans during Paryusan and Daslakshan.

It is almost the end of year and I am proud to be a part of this fantastic year 2012. Elections for 2013 will be held on December 16, 2012. I would request all the members to attend the general body meeting and provide your feedback on the future course of action in building the new temple.

Building a new Jain Temple in Washington Metro region is a once in a lifetime event for all of us. I urge each one of you to pitch in and help in the monumental process. I want to thank all the members who have already pledged and sent their donations for the New Temple. Those who have not yet pledged or have not sent donations are requested to make their share of donation for the new temple. If you are planning to take advantage of your donation for tax year 2012, please send in your donation towards your pledge for the new temple as soon as possible.

Once again, thank you all for providing strong and loving support to entire executive committee during year 2012. Before I conclude, I want to ask for forgiveness from all of you whose feelings I might have hurt knowingly or unknowingly due to my action, words or deeds, Micchami Dukkadam.

In any organization, there is always room for improvement to streamline and deliver better results.

We know that we have some of the best people with the best knowledge and ideas of how to improve our society. We want your ideas as part of this process.

Your comments and suggestions are always welcome, please contact me at 240-455-4524 or write me at President@Jainsocietydc.org

Sincerely,

Bhupesh Mehta (President)

YJA Update

Jai Jinendra! Young Jains of America (YJA), the youth branch of JAINA, has been very active these past few months and I am pleased to say many youth from the DC/MD/VA area have been taking part. In July, over 40 young Jains from our area (ages 14-29) attended the YJA 2012 Convention held in Tampa Bay, Florida.

In October, we also held a national dinner at Rasoi Indian Kitchen in Washington, D.C., where youth enjoyed a delicious meal, Jain discussion topics, and a fun educational game. Also in October, almost 60 people across North America (including several youth from our area), attended an educational webinar where Sramani Chaitanya Pragyaji, currently a professor at Florida International University, gave a lecture on karma theory followed by a question and answer session.

There are many more exciting events coming up and I encourage everyone between the ages of 14-29 to participate. YJA is a great way to meet new Jains, become involved in the community, and learn something new.

I will be updating you with more information on future programs including educational webinars, community service projects, the annual ski retreat in February, and youth activities at JAINA Convention 2013 in Detroit, Michigan July 4-7.

To stay connected, "like" the Young Jains of America Facebook page and follow @yjatweets on Twitter. Visit our website, www.yja.org, and read our YJA blog, containing posts ranging from how to have a Vegan thanksgiving to information on important Jain holidays.

YJA also puts out a quarterly publication known as Young Minds - one will be coming out soon! If you would like to write an article for the publication, email youngminds@yja.org.

Please consider supporting our efforts with a personal contribution to YJA today. A contribution of any amount will provide tremendous support to instill a sense of among youth about their Jain heritage. The ultimate goal of the YJA Executive Board is to prepare today's Jain youth to become tomorrow's Jain leaders. There are two ways you can donate: one, you can go online to <http://www.jaina.org/donations/> and choose the YJA donation fund and process a secure online payment there. Or, you may mail a check to our Director of Finance.

Please make your check payable to Young Jains of America and mail it to:
